On January 16, 2024, a Geographic research was carried out. Under the Department of Geography at Karmaveer Punjababa Govardhan Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Igatpuri, there are 98 families living in Take Ghoti Village. Using the questionnaire as a guide, the geography department students conducted an initial survey to gather data. From this data, the following conclusions were made. Takeghoti Village's location code, or village code, is 551086 based on Census 2011 data. Takeghoti hamlet is situated in Maharashtra, India's Igatpuri tehsil inside the Nashik district. It is located 41 km from the district headquarters in Nashik and 4 km from the sub-district headquarters in Igatpuri (the tehsildar office). Takeghoti village is also a gram panchayat, according to 2009 statistics. The total geographical area of village is 425.49 hectares. Takeghoti has a total population of 2,311 peoples, out of which male population is 1,183 while female population is 1,128. Literacy rate of Takeghoti village is 66.94% out of which 75.91% males and 57.54% females are literate. There are about 429 houses in Takeghoti village. Takeghoti is a sizable hamlet with 429 families living in it, situated in the Igatpuri Taluka of the Nashik district in Maharashtra. There are 2311 people living in the Takeghoti village, with 1183 men and 1128 women, according to the 2011 Population Census. There are 308 children in Takeghoti village between the ages of 0 and 6, which accounts for 13.33% of the hamlet's total population. Takeghoti village's average sex ratio is 954, which is greater than the state average of 929 for Maharashtra. According to the census, the Takeghoti child-sex ratio is 812, which is less than the Maharashtra average of 894. The literacy rate of Takeghoti village is lower than that of Maharashtra. Takeghoti village's 2011 literacy rate was 77.23%, while Maharashtra's was 82.34%. Takeghoti's male literacy rate is 86.75%, while the female rate is 65.56 %.

A sarpanch, chosen by the village's voters in local elections, is in charge of overseeing Takeghoti Village's administration. Takeghoti village is part of the Nashik parliamentary constituency and the Igatpuri assembly constituency, according to 2019 statistics. Takeghoti's closest town for all important economic activities is Igatpuri, about 4 km distant.
