Professional Training – On Job Training (OJT)
Report

Professional training (On Job Training) was organized for the students studying in M. A. Economics first year, in association with Economics Department of KPG College and Global Talent Track (GTT), Pune. It was held from 03 February to 29 February 2023. Vocational training has been included in the postgraduate course of Savitribai Phule Pune University and the said training was organized for the students as per the instructions of the university. Career Guidance & Placement Cell of the college played an important role in this project.

The total 90 hours of vocational training consisted of 30 hours of training from expert mentors and 60 hours of practical experience. 5 first year students studying in Economics department participated in this training program. The successful training by the efforts of Swades Foundation and GTT has contributed significantly to the professional skill development of the students. In this training, interview skills, writing self-introduction, group discussion, professional skills, work etiquette, along with many soft skills were imparted by expert mentors. The students got the guidance of expert guides like Mr. Amol Dixit, Mr. Sumedh Balaji and Mr. Sachin Wagh through this training. Students actively participated in this training program. Students emphasized that they liked the methods used for this training.

Along with this, the students were taken to the establishments for 60 hours to get hands-on experience of the work, to explain how the work is done and the procedures there. These mainly included banks, printing houses, government offices, newspaper offices. Interviews were conducted by different organizations for the trainees who successfully completed the training and received the certificate. Many students got job opportunities through this. Coordinator of Career Guidance & Placement Cell in the college Prof. G. S. Layare extended valuable support in this training program.
