Report of Science Day Celebration

The Science Day celebration at KPG College, Igatpuri, in 6/3/2024 was a remarkable event that highlighted the contributions of various science departments, particularly the Department of Botany. The event aimed to foster a deeper understanding of scientific principles among students and encourage their active participation in scientific exploration.

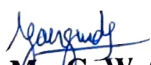

Science Day was celebrated on 06/03/2024, marking the anniversary of Sir C.V. Raman's discovery of the Raman Effect. The theme for this year's celebration centred around integrating various scientific disciplines to address contemporary challenges.

The Science Day celebration at KPG College was a successful event that showcased the collaborative efforts of various science departments and the enthusiasm of students. By presenting models, students not only demonstrated their understanding of scientific concepts but also engaged with their peers in meaningful discussions about science's role in society. These all event done in presence of Principal Dr.Kiran Rakibe, Mr. S. S. Pardeshi(IQAC Coordinator), Mr. G. W. Gangurde (HoD, Physics) and other teaching faculty staff. The faculty's support and encouragement were instrumental in making this celebration a memorable experience for all participants.
