Reports-2023-2024

On January 22, 2024, a linguistic survey was conducted under the Hindi Department of Karma. Punjabababa Gowardhane Arts, Commerce and Science College, Igatpuri. This survey was conducted by a total of 46 students of first, second and third classes of the college in the village of Take Ghoti. In this, cognitive skills were tested through practical knowledge of Hindi language, conversation skills, recognition and meaning of various words in the language, etc. It was found from this linguistic survey that most of the people speak and understand Hindi language well. Similarly, the students resolved various problems and doubts faced by the general public about Hindi language. Explaining the importance of Hindi language to the people of the village, they expressed their thoughts about great social reformers.
