EVM Machine Training on 29.02.2024

Organized jointly by the Department of Political Science and Tehsil Office Igatpuri.

EVM Machine Training was conducted on 29.02.2024 at Bortembe village in collaboration with the Department of Political Science of the college and Tehsil Office Igatpuri.

Considering the upcoming Assembly and Loksabha elections, the youth should vote as much as possible. For this purpose, this training was organized to provide information about the voting machine and how to vote to the youth who have completed 18 years of age, who are voting for the first time and the uneducated class.

The introduction of this program was given by the Hon. Principal of the college, Kiran Rakibe. In his introduction, he guided the youth and citizens of the village about why it is important to register to vote. He also convinced them of the importance of political participation of the youth.

For this program, Igatpuri Tehsildar Abhijit Baravkar appealed to as many young people as possible to register to vote. Also, the young people who are voting for the first time. And informed the citizens of the village about the voting machine and what precautions they should take while voting. Naib Tehsildar Smt. Varsha Wagh gave complete information about the voting machine to all the citizens who gathered at the beginning and appealed to as many citizens as possible to participate in this initiative.

A large number of citizens and youth from the village were present for this program. Also, Dr. Kalpana Waje from the Department of Political Science helped to increase the participation of as many citizens as possible by interacting directly with the citizens.
