Placement and Career Guidance Cell 2023-24

Overview:

The 80-hour Soft Skill Training Program, organized in collaboration with GTT Foundation and Swadesh Foundation, aimed to equip third-year and graduated students with essential skills necessary for their professional journey. The program covered a wide range of topics including Interview Skills, Resume Writing, Group Discussion, Being Professional, Work Etiquette, and LinkedIn usage.

Highlights:

- 1. Interview Skills: Participants learned various techniques to ace interviews, including effective communication, body language, and handling common interview questions.
- 2. Resume Writing: The program provided insights into crafting impactful resumes tailored to specific job roles, emphasizing key achievements and skills.
- 3. Group Discussion: Students engaged in interactive sessions to enhance their group discussion skills, focusing on articulation, listening, and presenting coherent arguments.
- 4. Being Professional: The importance of professionalism in the workplace was emphasized, covering aspects such as punctuality, attire, communication etiquette, and workplace ethics.
- 5. Work Etiquette: Participants gained understanding and practical tips on workplace etiquette, including email etiquette, teamwork, conflict resolution, and time management.
- 6. LinkedIn for Students: The program delved into leveraging LinkedIn as a powerful tool for networking, job hunting, and personal branding, guiding students on profile optimization and effective networking strategies.

Methodology:

The program employed a combination of lectures, workshops, group activities, role-plays, and real-life case studies to ensure an interactive and immersive learning experience. Experienced trainers and industry professionals facilitated the sessions, providing valuable insights and personalized feedback to participants.

Impact:

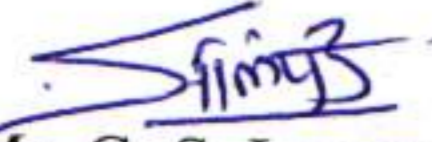

- Enhanced Interview Preparedness: Participants reported increased confidence and readiness to tackle job interviews, with a better understanding of interview dynamics and strategies.
- Improved Resume Quality: Attendees demonstrated improved resume-writing skills, resulting in more compelling and targeted resumes tailored to their career aspirations.
- Enhanced Communication and Collaboration: Through group discussions and teamwork activities, students honed their communication and collaboration skills, essential for success in the professional arena.
- Professionalism and Work Ethics: Participants gained a deeper appreciation for professionalism and work ethics, recognizing their significance in building a successful career.
- LinkedIn Proficiency: Students developed proficiency in utilizing LinkedIn as a tool for professional networking and career advancement, with many creating optimized profiles and expanding their professional connections.

Conclusion:

The 80-hour Soft Skill Training Program proved to be a valuable initiative in preparing third-year and graduated students for the challenges of the professional world. Through comprehensive coverage of essential soft skills and practical guidance, the program empowered participants to navigate their career paths with confidence and competence.

Acknowledgments:

We extend our gratitude to GTT Foundation and Swadesh Foundation for their collaboration and support in organizing this impactful training program. Special thanks to the Hon. Principal Dr Kiran Rakibe who gives permission and support us for organizing that training program and placement drive and trainers Mr. Amol Dixit, Mr Sumedh Balaji, and Sachin Wagh Sir facilitators, and participants for their active involvement and contribution towards making the program a success.

A report of Guest Lecture under Competitive Cell

Competitive Cell is formed in our college to guide students about the career opportunities available in various sectors. Students are provided with various study material and guest lectures so as to enable them to select right direction for their career. Various counselling session are also arranged where problems of students are addressed by teachers of the college.

A guest lecture for the students was organized by the Competitive Cell, K P G Arts, Commerce & Science College, Igatpuri on 01 March 2024 at 10.00 am at the Seminar Hall of the college. Mr. Suresh Varade was the guest lecturer of the program. He inaugurated this program in presence of Dr. Kiran Rakibe who was the Chair Person of the program. Mr. Suresh Varade guided the students about the preparation of competitive exams such as Banking, Insurance, Railway, SSC and MBA-CET exams during their graduation. He also presented the list of books that are very useful while preparing for competitive exams. Mr. Suresh Varade in his speech advised the participants not to fall for any short cut method of study, he said there is no short cut to success. He gave very good examples of many successful persons who have achieved their dreams by doing the hard work at the right time of their life. His lecture was truly very encouraging for our student.

After the guest lecture Dr. Kiran Rakibe Sir (Principal) delivered the chairman's speech, he said that the college is always very much willing to promote the competitive exam culture among the students of this college. He gave examples of various students of K. P. G. College who have successfully cleared different competitive exams. Many students enthusiastically participated in the program. Dr. Kiran Rakibe sir in his speech advised the students to be prepared for the challenges in future as the business world is developing at a very rapid rate. He further stated that a commerce student also needs to be versatile so as to get acquaint with modern business processes and practices. Total number of 125 students participated in the program out of which 64 were boys and 61 were girls students.

Mr. Pramod Nikam, Smt. Sunita Desai Mr. Gopal Layare and other teaching and non teaching staff were present for this programme. Mrs. Jyoti Bhor madam did the anchoring for the programme and Mr. Milind Dhebade presented the vote of thanks at the end.
