Report in brief:

The Road and Fire Safety Campaign Awareness Workshop was successfully conducted at the Indoor Stadium of K. P. G. Arts, Commerce & Science College, Igatpuri, on 30th January 2025. The event, aimed at raising awareness about road and fire safety, was a collaborative effort with the Regional Transport Authority (RTO), Nashik, Mahindra and Mahindra, Igatpuri, Police Stations of Ghoti and Igatpuri, and our college.

The workshop was inaugurated by Dr. KiranRakibe, Principal of the college, who warmly welcomed all the guests and emphasized the significance of understanding safety protocols in both road and fire-related emergencies. He noted the college's commitment to educating students about essential life skills and safety measures, which contribute to the overall well-being of society.

Inaugural Address by Principal Dr. Kiran Rakibe:

Dr. KiranRakibe, the Principal of the college, inaugurated the session and extended a heartfelt welcome to all the esteemed guests and attendees. He shared her views on the importance of safety in everyday life, stressing that safety measures should be ingrained in everyone's mindset. He also pointed out how the awareness workshop aligns with the college's mission to empower students with knowledge and practical skills that will benefit them and their communities. His speech was motivating and emphasized the collective responsibility of students, teachers, and the community in promoting road and fire safety.

Key Speakers and Their Addresses:

1. Miss PoonamDalavi (RTO, Nashik):

Miss PoonamDalavi, the representative of the Regional Transport Authority, Nashik, was one of the chief guests of the event. In her address, she shared vital information about road safety rules, the importance of wearing helmets and seat belts, and the need for following traffic signals. She highlighted how accidents on the road could be minimized with awareness and adherence to safety measures. She also encouraged students to be responsible citizens and lead by example when it comes to road safety.

2. Mr. Harish Choube(Deputy Manager and Fire Officer, Mahindra and Mahindra, Igatpuri):

Mr. Harish Choube, the Deputy Manager and Fire Officer at Mahindra and Mahindra, Igatpuri, spoke about fire safety and the measures that need to be taken to prevent fire hazards. He stressed the importance of understanding fire-fighting techniques, such as using fire extinguishers and identifying fire exits in buildings. He also discussed the critical role of fire drills in schools and organizations to prepare for any unforeseen fire-related situations. His practical tips on fire prevention left a lasting impact on the audience.

3. Dr. LataUpadhyay(Principal, Podar English Medium School, Igatpuri):

Dr. LataUpadhyay, Principal of Podar English Medium School, Igatpuri, addressed the audience with her insights into the importance of safety education. She emphasized that safety education should be an integral part of the curriculum, as it teaches students not only to protect themselves but also to care for the community. She appreciated the college for organizing such a workshop and encouraged the students to adopt safety as a way of life, especially when dealing with emergencies like fire and accidents.

4. Mr. Sunil Ahire(PSI, Highway, Igatpuri):

Mr. Sunil Ahire, Police Sub-Inspector (PSI) from the Highway Police Station in Igatpuri, delivered an impactful speech on road safety and the role of police in ensuring traffic laws are followed. He talked about the importance of reducing road accidents through awareness campaigns and road safety education. He urged the students to drive responsibly, follow traffic signals, and not indulge in rash driving. He also discussed the consequences of not following traffic rules, including penalties and accidents, highlighting that discipline on the road saves lives.

Program Coordinator – Mr. S. S. Pardeshi:

The workshop was coordinated by Mr. S. S. Pardeshi, who meticulously planned and executed the event. His efforts were commendable, as the workshop was well-organized, informative, and engaging. He thanked all the guests and experts for their valuable contributions and highlighted the importance of such workshops in making the students more aware of their safety and responsibilities.

Anchor – Prof. Uttam Sangale:

The program was anchored by Prof. Uttam Sangale, who managed the event with great enthusiasm and professionalism. His smooth transitions between the speakers and the engaging way in which he presented the various sessions made the workshop lively and interactive. He effectively maintained the energy of the event, ensuring the audience stayed engaged throughout the program.

Vote of Thanks – Prof. R. S. Gayakwad:

At the end of the workshop, Prof. R. S. Gayakwad delivered the vote of thanks. He expressed his gratitude to all the chief guests, speakers, the coordinators, and attendees. He acknowledged the importance of such programs in enhancing safety awareness and thanked the experts for sharing their invaluable knowledge. Prof. Gayakwad also thanked the staff and students for their participation and enthusiasm in making the event a success.

The Road and Fire Safety Campaign Awareness Workshop was a significant and impactful event for the students, faculty, and staff of K. P. G. Arts, Commerce & Science College, Igatpuri. The experts' engaging talks, coupled with the informative and interactive sessions, made the workshop a highly valuable experience. The event succeeded in raising awareness about road and fire safety, offering practical solutions and actionable advice that will help the students in their daily lives and when faced with emergencies.

The workshop was an important step in fostering a culture of safety and responsibility, and the college looks forward to conducting more such events in the future to benefit the students and the community at large.
